The Messenger of Allah (pbuh) said: "If anyone recites (or says) this surah at night before going to sleep, it will protect him from evil and calamities and grant him a good standing before Allah. And he will be safe from any harm" (Ibn Majah). Shaykh Muhammad ibn Salih al-'Usaymin, may Allah have mercy on him, said: "This surah is one of the shortest surahs to read. This surah contains many ayahs and can be recited at any time and at any age. Allah Most High said: "O those who believe! Do not enter other people's homes until you ask permission and greet their occupants in peace. And when you enter them, sit down. And if any of you be troubled by any disease, let him do good deeds, for they are only for the believers. We do not keep count of them (virtues). Indeed, We will give to those who do good deeds Gardens of Paradise in which rivers flow. They will abide in them forever, and they will not be treated unjustly. How beautiful is Allah's promise, and how beautiful are the words wherewith He promised it! But if your words are but idle talk, what can you do? Verily those who disbelieve in the Truth will not cease from doing evil. But nothing has been bestowed upon them from Allah except delusion. How beautiful is the promise of Allah, and how beautiful are the words wherewith He hath promised it! But if thy words are but idle talk, what canst thou do? Verily those who disbelieve in the truth will not cease from doing evil.
