What's new in Biscuitts:

name is changing, Rebecca Biscuitti has been confirmed as the current head coach for the Akron U women's basketball program. She has been Akron U head coach for two seasons, first taking over for Dan Hurley, who departed for Oklahoma State, before Anthony Grant took over. Biscuitti was a key member of the front office for the Pride during Grant's tenure at Akron. She's the only person on the Pride's staff who was with Grant all four years. She is the only assistant under Grant's guidance to land on the Akron roster twice, and to be on the first and third team of the MAC. Biscuitti also served as an assistant women's basketball coach for the Cincinnati Bearcats, before returning to Akron in 2018. Before taking over for Grant, Biscuitti was a graduate assistant at the University of Colorado for the 2017-18 season. That is the season prior to Grant's arrival to Akron. But her coaching career was in the picture before Grant. She worked with Grant while he was at Furman. While Biscuitti has had a distinguished career, both as a player and head coach, she has a connection to Akron, and it's one Grant values highly. Biscuitti played under NCAA FBS coach Ron Zook, who also coached Ohio State for nearly 20 years before taking over at Akron. Biscuitti was referred to by ESPN as "the product of Zook's recruiting philosophy" in a recent article. Biscuitti was another of the Ohio State stars recruited by Zook. During Grant's tenure at Akron he has not been afraid to hire a coach with strong ties to Ohio State. Coach Josh Pastner was one, who was with Grant at Furman and Ohio State. Biscuitti's ties to Zook in particular, show how Grant values Ohio State programs. Biscuitti and Grant also played under Zook at Furman. Jennifer Roepke is the other Akron assistant that saw success at Ohio State. When Roepke was a player for the Buckeyes, she attended Ohio State for all four years in the 1990's. Roepke was on the first national title team, and she starred on the legendary championship teams of the early 1990s. When Jennifer Roep
