models.ForeignKey(User, related_name='items') title =
models.CharField(max_length=50) class Profile(models.Model): user =
models.ForeignKey(User,
related_name='profile') items =
models.ManyToManyField(Item,

I want to add items to profile.items if profile.user = user.

Then I have to save the profile. item = Item.objects.create(title='Foo') profile = Profile.objects.create(user=user, items=item, title='Bar')

If the user doesn't have items in the items field of the profile yet, I want to add them as soon as the instance of profile is saved. How can I get the profile before saving it? I have tried Item.objects.filter(pk=profile.id).select_related('user')

But that returns the profile data along with the additional Item field. I only want to return the profile data. A:

It sounds like you want a post_save signal on your Profile object. First make sure that you have the related_name on your profile.items field: profile_items = models.ManyToManyField(Item, for Mayfair Suites This property is conveniently located in the heart of Tallahassee, close to campus and the Shoppes at Orange Park. A fully-equipped kitchen is available to our Guests. Our suites are spacious enough for a small family and comfortably large enough for a small-to-medium sized business. Not only is our location ideal for all types of businesses, we've recently joined the selection of the world-class hotel group, Fairfield Inn & Suites, which has been a great partner for the Convention & Visitors Bureau, as well as other events, conventions and sporting events we're involved in. We do the room cleaning, bathroom & linens once a week. The rooms are cleaned daily and have clean towels. The property is dog friendly and we've had a few pets stay with us. There's a small yard for small dogs. The cabana area also is dog-friendly. We've got a swimming pool that is open to the public, as well as an outdoor pavilion, shuffleboard, fire pit and grills. Come for the day and unwind at our hotel. Reservations are preferred. There are discounts for multiple stays. See you in Mayfair! We're only 5 minutes from the downtown area, 7 miles from Florida State University and the Seminole Hard Rock Hotel and Casino, 10 miles from the Florida State Fairgrounds and 30 miles from Tallahassee Regional Airport (TLH) – if you're traveling on business, you're closer to your airport!Q: When I run package.json "npm run build", can't find tsconfig.json I'm using Ionic and created my own build for testing When I run npm run build It's asking me the right source code path, but it is creating a tsconfig.json under src/ tsconfig.json in src, tsconfig.json in ionic src tsconfig
